

Chapter 13

The Great Flood and Beyond

NOW WITH THE TRUE MEANING OF DEATH buried in our souls we journey on through Death Valley and out onto the plain of the living. Along the way This Man pauses occasionally as he unfolds another chapter in the greatest true story ever told.

His voice echoes over the countryside. “Now that Abel is buried and resting in death we must move away from Eden and travel the arc of Planet Earth’s early history.

After murdering his brother, and sending his parents into deep mourning for their dead son, Cain eventually goes his own way.

And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son - Enoch. Genesis 4:17

While grieving the loss of their two sons, Adam and Eve continue their way in life.

And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth. ‘For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.’ And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh. Then men began to call on the name of the LORD. Genesis 4:25-26

As time and life evolves, descendants from the divided families populate the regions of the world, establishing the first human societies.

With the imprint of creation still fresh upon their lives, these extraordinary people are giants in stature and intellect.

There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown. Genesis 6:4

From Adam, a righteous line of believers, called the Sons of God, uphold God’s true knowledge, unfolding His plan of salvation to the world. Thus through their committed lives the promise of a coming deliverer is kept alive.

All over the world, grand enterprises are built up; great technological achievements amassed - some to the glory of God, and sadly, others to the exaltation of Satan. Running side by side like two tracks of a railway line, good and evil travel the same distance in time and people choose their own destiny, for good or evil, for life or death.

Gradually, over time, a strange phenomenon creeps over the world producing catastrophic events. Satan’s power becomes more devious and alas, less obvious to the unwary. Over the planet, human societies corrupt their values indulging in immoral conduct and pagan worship.

...although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man—and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. Romans 1:21-25

Thus a tide of temptation floods the world enticing believers to compromise their Godly principles. Beguiled by Satan's ploy, the righteous descendants of Adam, called the son's of God, lower their values and standards. Very soon they cross over God's spiritual divide between good and evil and marry the alluring daughters of sinful men, the descendents of Cain.

Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose. Genesis 6:1-2

From this unholy union, righteousness is diluted with unrighteousness. Without restraint, evil escalates, overpowering all the good in the world.

Genetic manipulation of the species becomes the accepted practice of the day, even to the extent that animal genes are intermixed with humans, defacing God's image in mankind. And the evidence of this reality is borne out in our times, where ancient skeletons defying standard scientific theory are discovered – even skeletons bearing the likeness of both man and monkey. Surging ever forward and proud of their evil practices, the wicked bring God's judgment upon themselves.

Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. So the LORD said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them. Genesis 6:5-7

As evil increases over the planet, God's impending judgment is pronounced upon the wicked.

And the LORD said, 'My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.' Genesis 6:3

With this announcement the great King allots to the wicked 120 years of probation with the warning: 'Repent of your evil and live in my commandments or perish with your sin.'

*Arise, O LORD,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the nations be judged in Your sight.
Put them in fear, O LORD,*

That the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah. Psalm 9:19-20

Now in the midst of human corruption there lives a godly man called Enoch who belongs to the righteous line of Adam. Enoch lives in such a close relationship with God that God cannot let Enoch die, but takes him straight to heaven. Enoch ...walked with God; and he was not, for God took him. By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, and was not found, because God had taken him; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. Hebrews 11:5

As Enoch walks with God he looks into God's prophetic mirror of the future. What do you think he sees?

Sadly, he sees the same kind of wickedness prevailing in the times of the end of the world. And so inspired by God's Spirit, Enoch pronounces God's coming judgement.

Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, 'Behold, the LORD comes with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgement on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.' Jude 14-15

Yes, in Planet Earth's early history, through Enoch, God speaks of judgement - judgement for Enoch's time and ours.

*And a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgement,
Because for every matter there is a time and judgement. Ecclesiastes 8:5-6*

For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 2 Corinthians 5:10

You see judgement is not optional with God, but a dire necessity to bring a just end to evil. Remember evil is the perpetrator working death - and ultimately the only way to annihilate evil is with death itself.

Thus to rid the world of wickedness God has to pass judgement upon the wicked - and to rid the world of the wicked He must destroy them with death.

*I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.
Yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more;
Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.
the transgressors shall be destroyed together;
The future of the wicked shall be cut off. Psalm 37:35-38*

Yet destroying the wicked is a most unnatural act for God to perform, quite the opposite to

His nature of love and spirit of life.

*'For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim;
He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon
That He may do His work,
His awesome work,
And bring to pass His act, His unusual act.
Now therefore, do not be mockers,
Lest your bonds be made strong;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts,
A destruction determined even upon the whole earth.'* Isaiah 28:21-22
*He has shown you, O man, what is good;
And what does the LORD require of you but to do justly,
To love mercy,
And to walk humbly with your god?
Micah 6:8*

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man's all. For God will bring every work into judgement, including every secret thing, whether good or evil. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14

So during earth's early history Enoch is taken to heaven without ever dying. And as time goes by things grow increasingly worse until the whole world is seething with wickedness. Yet, thankfully in the midst of an estimated six billion people there shines another godly life. The righteous life of a man called Noah.

But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect in his generations. Noah walked with God. And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth. And God said to Noah, 'The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

'Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch.

'And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

'You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third decks. "And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die.

'But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. "And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

'Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive.

'And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them.'

Thus Noah did; according to all that God commanded him, so he did. Genesis 6:15-22

And so obeying God's command, Noah begins to build a massive ship called an ark. As the ark slowly takes shape, faithful Noah preaches God's message of judgement, warning the masses that God will send a great flood of water to destroy them if they do not stop their evil ways.

Hopefully, the people will stop their evil practices and commit their lives to God. For God does not intend all the people of the earth to enter Noah's ark of gopher wood and be saved from the flood. No indeed, God intends all may repent and enter His spiritual ark - the saving life of His Son.

You see, God wants the people to repent of their evil, then He will not need to send a destroying flood, and Noah can stop building the ark.

Still, if the wicked choose to remain in their evil ways then Noah's ark is God's means to preserve life upon the planet.

And so demonstrating his own faith in God, Noah continues to build and preach hoping to convert the world to righteousness and stay the flood. But alas the wicked only mock Noah and thus they mock God.

The 120 years of warning expire and now the ark is finished. For the last time Noah's voice echoes God's warning of the coming flood, then fades into silence. His task is finished.

Sadly, not one of the wicked has chosen to enter God's spiritual ark of salvation. As all have rejected God's mercy and love they shall all perish with their evil.

And so you see in the end, Noah's ark made of wood is built to the exact proportions to save all the faithful of earth from the impending flood.

Then the LORD said to Noah, 'Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation.

'You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female; also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth.

'For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made.'

And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him. Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.

So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood. Genesis 7: 1-7

Now above our trail the sky begins to thicken with billowing clouds and the sun's warming face slips away in hiding.

This Man looks heavenward and concern shows on his face. Now. His eyes search the trail and we see two men hurrying toward us dressed in pure white. This Man joins them and they talk in tones of urgency. The sky above is rapidly changing, darkening clouds rush with impending danger. One of the two men moves quickly to the rear of our group while the other leads the way down the blackened trail. We notice This Man keeps in step with the trail blazer and behind them we hurry along.

A howling wind now buffets us to and fro while lightening flashes across the raging sky. Thunder soon answers with a deafening crash above our heads. Then a torrent of rain falls like bullets from the sky. Still we hurry on and we begin to wonder. Who are these two men, glowing with a benevolence like we have never seen before? They appeared like watch men in the night, protecting us with supernatural power.

We round a corner and there before us looms a log cabin. Smoke rises from a chimney above a slated roof promising shelter and warmth. We enter the cabin, escaping the driving rain. As we rest, the men in pure white attend to our every need and soon we are warm and dry.

No one dares to speak, all are silenced by a spiritual aura streaming from the two men who serve us. They seem to peer into the very depths of our souls while joy shines upon each of their faces.

This Man seeks our attention and somehow the two men in pure white vanish in a vapour of heavenly light. This Man chuckles with delight and yes, he explains the two men dressed in pure white were heavenly angels sent in the form of men.

Once more This Man opens his ancient book and reads aloud.

"The angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him, And delivers them."
Psalm 34:7

For it is written: 'He shall give His angels charge over you, To keep you,' Luke 4:10

Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation? Hebrews 1:14

...and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. Genesis 28:12

Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels. Hebrews 13:2

And so as spiritual insight seeps into our minds our hearts glow with gratitude toward the great King and His beloved Son. Safe in the warm cabin we begin to wonder about Noah and his family, are they still safe in the wooden Ark?

This man answers our thoughts as he carries us back over time to the magnificent ark still resting on dry land

As soon as Noah and his family with all their creature cargo were safely on board an invisible hand closed the great door to the ark ...and the LORD shut him in. Genesis 7:16

In the same instant the wicked are shut out from God's mercy, ending their time of probation forever. Milling around the ark, the crowd wait to see what will happen next. For a time, a wave of apprehension silences the wicked. But as the sun continues to shine, their fears soon evaporate and with jeers and mocking they return to their hedonistic pleasures.

One day, two days go by and the ark remains a silent warning on the landscape of the ancient times.

Three days, four days, five days, six days pass and still the wicked revile in their evil as if there is no end to life.

But after seven days - to their startling surprise they awake to a grey overcast sky. Dark clouds march across the sky, forecasting the coming doom. A howling wind blows, intensifying by the hour. Genesis 7:10

The sky continues to darken with rage. Suddenly, bolts of lightning streak across the heavens striking the earth with a scorching trail of death. Within seconds deafening thunder explodes over the airy terrain.

Then from the sky the first raindrops ever to fall, splash upon the dry ground and for the first time the wicked begin to learn the meaning of rain. All eyes are transfixed toward the heavens, when suddenly the sky peels open and pours forth her deluge striking terror into the hearts of the wicked.

...and the windows of heaven were opened. Genesis 7:11

Hour by hour, day after day, rivers of waters become deepening lakes in the valleys of earth. As the surface waters rise higher and higher the wicked realise their deathly doom.

Many swim for the ark clawing and banging on the solid walls, shouting to Noah to open the door and save them. But it is too late now. The invisible hand which shut the great door of the ark keeps the door tightly sealed.

With the swirling waters, the great ark begins to lift, sucking the bodies of the wicked under her massive boughs. Further away from the ark, young and old alike, scramble for higher and still higher ground but alas many are trampled to death under hooves of terrified, stampeding animals.

Suddenly, the earth quakes and reels, rupturing the great ocean beds around the globe. Instantly, foaming waters gush from broken caverns swelling earth's heaving tide.

All the fountains of the great deep were broken up... Genesis 7: 11

Slowly but surely, the technological achievements of the wicked crumble and are swept away in torrents of water, most never to be seen again. Pagan altars stained with the blood of human sacrifices are mercilessly pulverized by God's avenging power.

Over the decimated land flows volcanic lava, mud and debris, burying alive hideous life forms of manipulated genes, some fossilising over time to bear witness in our day that God truly sent a flood.

*Truth shall spring out of the earth,
And righteousness shall look down from heaven. Psalm 85:11*

Cities of skyscraper proportions suddenly collapse into a quagmire of rubble. Vast evergreen forests sink beneath the rich mineral soil petrifying over centuries into coal, gas and oil fields we harvest today.

Volcanic eruptions tear apart majestic mountains, reappearing in formations of jagged rock. Everywhere mutilated bodies litter the raging seas.

As days turn into weeks, the remaining wicked desperately leap upon the backs of fleeing beasts, hoping to escape to the last dry peaks of earth. But in vain are their efforts. For with the ever rising tide all slip into a watery grave and vanish from sight. As the last peak disappears beneath the flooded surface, once again the whole planet is covered with water as it was before creation.

*The earth was without form, and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep.
And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. Genesis 1:2*

Thus Planet Earth reaps the curse of man's sin and mourns her deathly loss even to this day.

And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive. Genesis 7:21-23

And through all this destruction and death God silently weeps. Yet there is nothing more He could have done. Wicked humanity made a choice against God and thus reaped the consequences.

Only eight lives saved from some six billion people.

A spiritual catastrophe that shakes the merciful heart of God, for God is ...not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. 2 Peter 3: 9

'Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?' says the Lord GOD, 'and not that he should turn from his ways and live?' Ezekiel 18:23"

Now peering through our own cabin window a barren landscape tumbles before our eyes. It seems we to have entered upon a vast devastation.

This devastation echoes the doom of a lost world even to our day. And from this silent landscape tears of sadness wash over our souls and well in our hearts of sympathy. Sympathy for the great King and Son and for those people of Noah's day who would not heed God's merciful voice.

Realising our emotion This Man releases our sadness into a stream of sobering reality.

“The frightening conclusion of the whole saga is this: As the wicked participated with Satan in his evil rule, Satan almost gained predominance over the world, and almost destroyed God’s plan to save repentant humanity.

Yet the record stands for our instruction today: The wicked majority became the dead minority. And the righteous minority become the living majority.

Thankfully Noah and his family are the remaining human threads. They and their descendants will carry forward the righteous line. For one day in the future through this righteous line the Son of God will be born into humanity, destined to die the sacrificial death.

Without the Son’s death and resurrection back to life, all humanity dating from Adam and Eve, would silently slip into a hopeless state of everlasting death.

Now the flood was on the earth forty days. And when the earth is completely covered with water and every living thing which lived on dry land is dead, the rain finally stops. Genesis 7:17

And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days. Genesis 7: 24

Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. Genesis 8:1

Thus as the waters subside the ark comes to rest on the mountains of Arrarat. Genesis 8:4

And with a blast from God’s nostrils, the remaining water recedes from the mountain slopes, draining from gouged canyons and silted valleys; seeping away from waterlogged plains. Finally all that remains of the great flood of water are scattered lakes and running rivers feeding the new world’s vast oceans.

And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry. And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.

Then God spoke to Noah, saying, ‘Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.’ Genesis 8:13-17

As the massive door of the ark opens into Planet Earth’s second era, Noah peers into the world.

A grey cloudy sky looms over the mountain peaks, greeting him in a wake of silent death. And yet for the eight souls on board the ark, a new life beckons. Squawking birds venture from the ark, flying into the cool air while beasts and creatures scamper over the devastation.

So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him. Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, 'I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.' Genesis 8:18-21

No, God would not destroy every living thing ...as I have done... with a flood of water.

'I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud; and I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.' Genesis 9:13-15

Yet we must not become complacent. Although God's rainbow reminds us He will never destroy the earth again with a flood of water, in His word He informs us there is yet another worldwide destruction coming for the wicked.

For at the end of the world, God will destroy the face of the earth with the fires of judgement when Jesus' appears at His second coming.

...knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, 'Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.'

For this they wilfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgement and perdition of ungodly men.

But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.

Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 2 Peter 3:3-12

'Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,
Who were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away by a flood?
They said to God, "Depart from us!"

What can the Almighty do to them?" Job 22:15-17

'But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.' Matthew 24:37-39

Yes, today as we approach the Son's second coming, each new rainbow appearing in the sky speaks a warning message to our hearts, 'Turn away from sin. Pray for forgiveness. Turn to God before it is too late.' Our only safety is to enter God's spiritual ark, the saving life of His Son. Then we shall escape the fiery destruction of the wicked in the last day."

WITH AN ACHING HEART, GOD DESTROYED THE PRE-FLOOD WORLD. The inventions of that time must have been astounding, perhaps even beyond our wildest imagination. But clearly evil had saturated earth's human race or God would not have taken such a drastic measure to destroy all man's development and the earth's degraded environment.

The question has to be asked: How evil can our 21st century world become? Deadly and desperate changes are happening in every area of life, and millions perhaps even billions of people view evil as normal. They are deceived. But those of us who put God first in our lives need not go along with the "normal" view of life. For God has told us:

*"Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" Isaiah 5:20*

This article considers one deathly evil activity being called "harmless" by governments and military across the globe. Perhaps you have heard of "geoengineering", commonly known as "chemtrails."

Geoengineering is the spraying of our skies with chemicals and perhaps even bacteria, virii (viruses), blood cells, microscopic fibres and even tinier nano particles which can communicate with each other. Shocking indeed. Governments and notably government military have been spraying the world's skies for decades, some say back to the 1940's.

These trails are not left over fuel trails from passenger planes. Those are called contrails, which dissipate quickly, in seconds, and leave no trace.

And no, those feathery and pretty, or bulbous and oppressive clouds are not natural cloud formations. Perhaps you have wondered why your neighbourhood has days of heavy, grey, hazy cloud cover? Let us share what we have discovered.

There are documents from various governments which mention spraying of substances in the sky dating back to the 1960's, possibly even earlier. As at February 2016 there is a bill before the US congress to legitimise chemtrail spraying. Yes, 30 or more years of spraying chemicals in the air we breathe is unknown to millions of people. Sky spraying is probably not even legal (against the Geneva Convention drawn up in 1949 after World War II) but official evidence of geoengineering can be found.

For instance the term "chemtrails" is in the text of US Congress 2001 legislation, (HR-2977) and defined as an "exotic weapon". In 2010 an Aerospace Engineer presented conclusive evidence for Covert Stratospheric Aerosol Geoengineering, in a 336 page report "Case Orange". The report was commissioned by The Belfort Group (UK), and conclusions on the report were presented by Aerospace Engineer, Dr Coen Vermeeren at a "Chemtrails Symposium" in Belgium.

And late in 2015, a NASA scientist unwittingly revealed that spraying of the skies was part of the NASA research programme and that lithium (a heavy metal) was being sprayed at high altitudes.

So what is in these "chemtrails"? Once you read the list, we think you will want to learn more about how to improve your health and immune system.

Ingredients in chemtrails differ throughout the world, and different mixes of ingredients are sprayed at different times. Reasons given for chemtrail spraying sound innocent enough: Helping with climate change; Military testing; Spraying for insects. Yet this is where personal research is vital. There is factual, personal and anecdotal information on the internet, from very many sources. And for that reason I have listed some website links so you can read and decide for yourself.

Here is an excerpt from: http://stopsprayingcalifornia.com/What_are_they_Spraying.php

With startling accuracy one writer from the 19th century, Ellen G White, warned that near the end of time the enemy of God, called Satan, would be wreaking havoc on earth. This warning was given to her by God. (The italics are ours.)

“While appearing to the children of men as a great physician who can heal all their maladies, he will bring disease and disaster, until populous cities are reduced to ruin and desolation. Even now he is at work. In accidents and calamities by sea and by land, in great conflagrations, in fierce tornadoes and terrific hailstorms, in tempests, floods, cyclones, tidal waves, and earthquakes, in every place and in a thousand forms, Satan is exercising his power. He sweeps away the ripening harvest, and famine and distress follow. He imparts to the air a deadly taint, and thousands perish by the pestilence. These visitations are to become more and more frequent and disastrous. Destruction will be upon both man and beast. “The earth mourneth and fadeth away,” “The haughty people ... do languish. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.” Isaiah 24:4-5” https://egw-writings.org/?ref=en_CH.461.1¶=20.2409”

Take heart! We are not hopeless. Even in these last times of the world, we can take steps to protect our health. Firstly, below are a selection of website addresses to research geoengineering further. Please note: We at Vital Force may not agree with all material on any of these websites and caution you to consider this information in your daily prayer time with our great Redeemer (Jesus Christ).

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO KEEP HEALTHY

Firstly, we refer you to God. For truly, each one of us is entitled by faith to experience a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, who suffered mightily for each one of us. Through talking with Jesus every day, we get a fuller sense of how He would have us live. Practically, this makes living as a Bible believer much easier: The right choice in any situation is easier to discern; Fear is easier to deal with when Jesus is with you; We tend to see our need for Jesus and can easily confess our sins to Him.

Secondly, we invite you to view these simple steps to health on the Vital Force NZ website. <http://www.vitalforce.org.nz/health.html>

However, there are specific steps we have discovered which have helped to improve our health in this chemtrail spraying world. As usual, this information is for educational purposes only, and is in no way medical advice.

1. When spending time outside, we try to wash face and hands frequently with fresh water. This washes small particles away from body openings like ears.
2. When coming inside from the outdoors, leave shoes outside the main living area. This prevents particulates from entering the living area.
3. Improve detoxification pathways in the body. The simplest way we have found is to drink dandelion tea/coffee and/or rooibos tea frequently, and to eat foods which support the detoxification pathways. All cruciferous vegetables – cauliflower, broccoli, kale, cabbage are helpful in stimulating production of a substance called “glutathione” which is vital for detoxification. Some people tire easily after eating raw cruciferous vegetables. According to Australian naturopath Dean Armytage this could be due to thyroid malfunction. So vegetables can be cooked instead. Also eat foods which suit your unique biochemistry. We have found organic foods help tremendously in keeping healthy. Even though they may be exposed to particulates falling from the sky (as are conventional fruit and vegetables, organic fruit and vegetables contain far, far less dangerous substances).

4. Plant Foods: We have found that most people will benefit from a plant based diet, free of all animal products. There are a minority of people who may not improve on a plant based diet and we have found they may need to find the minimum amount of biblically clean and organic animal products which suits them for best health. Changing to a plant based diet can take time, so is a goal to strive for.

Why a plant based diet? Well, animals are exposed to the ingredients in chemical spraying both through the air and also through their food. This means that just like humans, animals store toxins in fat and many places in their bodies. So by eating flesh foods you are eating the animal's stored toxins. Also, these chemical sprays cause all immune systems to be suppressed, and in turn disease flourishes in the body of the animal. This is even true of animal milks. Chemicals pass through the blood to the animal milk.

5. Vitamin C can help if starting to feel ill after exposure on a heavy spraying day or cloud cover day. Personal research is recommended to establish a suitable level. You may be surprised to learn the recommended dosage! Some people take 6000mg daily, as a minimum dosage.

We have found these ideas above, as well as the Strength for Life concepts on the Vital Force website, are all good steps to take towards better health in today's world. Yes, we do feel different to others, and yes, at times we can feel uncomfortable. We do not always manage to deal with this discomfort in the best way, but each day we are learning and giving up our will to God, that His strength may be sufficient for us in difficult times. Time is short and Bible prophecy tells us there will be many more difficult times ahead.

We do understand that many people struggle with the idea of their lifestyle having any positive effect on their health. In this case, we suggest two things:

Firstly, be your own experiment. How will you discover what works for your body unless you try something different to your usual lifestyle?

Secondly, we encourage you to think about the Hebrew people who followed the health laws taught to them by God at Mount Sinai. (You can find these laws in Leviticus, one of the Old Testament books in the Bible.) Remarkably, in times of plague later in earth's history, the Hebrew people survived by following God's health and hygiene laws while all around them people were dying!

“Beloved I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.” 3 John 3

This Man looks into our eyes. The answer he seeks lies deep in our hearts, in our private thoughts. Now This Man returns us again to ancient times.

“Even though the ancient world is buried in the depths of the earth, the new world begins to reap the old world’s curse of sin.

As creation evolves in the shadow of its former glory, Planet Earth’s second era takes on an inferior form. Humanity with all creature life now face a harsher climate with changing seasons.

*While the earth remains,
Seedtime and harvest,
Cold and heat,
Winter and summer,
And day and night
Shall not cease. Genesis 8:22*

Offering warmth and shelter, the ark remains a temporary home for the Noah family, and the first task for the new pioneers is to cultivate the rugged ground, planting the seeds they have brought with them from the past world.

And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard. Genesis 9:20

Once again the earth produces food for man: Trees bearing fruit, vines with sweet grapes, tasty vegetables growing in the soil.

And to supplement their vegan diet, for the first time God permits mankind to eat the flesh of creatures.

‘Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs.’ Genesis 9:3

But for human health, God makes a stipulation that blood should not be consumed.

‘But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.’ Genesis 9:4

Why? Because blood can carry impurities and when consumed by humans, disease may result. Generations later God gives other directives for consuming the flesh of creatures.

For example, ‘You shall not eat any detestable thing.’ Deuteronomy 14:3

You may learn more about this important truth, in the Bible - Leviticus chapter 11. Discover for yourself the differences between the clean creatures for human consumption and the unclean creatures which God said should be not be eaten.

So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.’ Genesis 9:1

To the rising generations who never experienced earth’s former prosperity, Noah and his family pass on the knowledge and sciences of early creation - and above all the knowledge and love of God.

With passing time Noah's astounding life comes to an end.

And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died. Genesis 9:28-29

Although Noah lived to a grand old age, in Planet Earth's second era humanity begins to reap an ever-decreasing lifespan, due to lifestyle and dietary changes.

Approximately twelve generations after Noah's death at age 950, life expectancy drastically drops to one hundred and twenty-seven years... Genesis 23:1

And so as life continues in Ararat's mountains, the families of Noah multiply into the second human race.

From the scattered population, a charismatic leader arrives on the scene of human history. A great-grandson of Noah called Nimrod.

Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, 'Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.' Genesis 10:8-9

Nimrod's fame begins in Ararat's rugged terrain.

After the animals leave the ark their numbers rapidly increase. Some species become fierce predators hunting for food, and the more slowly multiplying humans are in danger of being attacked and eaten.

Thus Nimrod, the mighty hunter, takes up the challenge to become the communities' protector and provider.

With time Nimrod the mighty hunter is exalted as protector and leader of the people. But alas, this opens the way for Satan to find a foothold in Nimrod's life.

Very soon, Satan uplifts Nimrod as a god before the people.

You see, Satan is highly successful in drawing the human mind away from God and into worship of false gods. Satan conceals himself in these false gods and steals worship from God the creator.

One false god of Satan's devising is found later in the Bible, the god of Ekron called Baal-Zebub.

Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, 'Go, inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury.' 2 Kings 1:2

And in the New Testament of the Bible we discover the name 'Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron', links up to 'Beelzebub, the ruler of demons.'

Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, 'This fellow does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons.' But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: 'Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?' Matthew 12:24-26

Yes Satan, Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons disguises himself in images of false gods and receiving worship he enthrones himself in the human mind.

Through deception and trickery, Satan is able to twist people's minds just a degree. Then one small step in the wrong direction leads far away from all that is true in God.

Thus it was in earth's second era, through the life of Nimrod, Satan once again begins to exalt himself above God in the minds of the people. Deceived by Satan's lying spirit the majority turn away from God and begin to worship Nimrod, the mighty hunter and protector.

All the while, Satan is planting the seeds of paganism and the mysteries of the occult in Nimrod's mind, and very soon with Satanic nurturing these seeds germinate in Nimrod's life.

From the regions of Ararat, migration spreads onto the plains of Shinar, and from Nimrod's life, Satan's religion steeped in paganism takes root in the world.

Now Nimrod becomes an empire builder. First are the cities of Babel, Erech, Accad and Calneh in the land of Shinar. Genesis 10:10

Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.

Then they said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.' They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. And they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.' Genesis 11:1-4

Nimrod leads the people to believe in a One World Government, over which he shall reside as supreme leader. He plans to build a great capital city of the world, and in this city, a tall tower shall be built, reaching high into the heavens, standing as a monument to his power and authority.

...let us make a name for ourselves, a name above God's name and all that is His in the earth.

And above all, remembering the stories of the great flood, the high tower shall stand as a refuge and a defense against any judgement God should send upon them for their wicked deeds.

Thus, inspiring Nimrod and the people of Shinar with evil intent, once again Satan begins to dominate the world.

*For you have said in your heart:
'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
I will also sit on the mount of the congregation
On the farthest sides of the north;*

*I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
I will be like the Most High.' Isaiah 14:13-14*

But God's authority cannot be overthrown.

*The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And the LORD sits as King forever.
Psalm 29:10*

And so to quell the misled rebellion, God performs a very ingenious miracle: At this time in earth's history, all the people speak one language - but not for much longer.

There at the building site, as the tower reaches modern skyscraper proportions, with one stroke of His power, God divides the people of Babel into nations, each nation speaking a different language.

But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. And the LORD said, 'Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them. Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.' Genesis 11:5-7

What confusion for the builders! As one opens his mouth to speak, the words are a mystery to most. When others try to reply, they too find that their words are not understood. It seems that everyone is babbling! Thus the tower and city is named Babel, meaning 'confusion.'

Just as God intends, the building stops. Gradually those people who speak the same language separate into groups, and make their way to other regions of the world.

So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth. Genesis 11:8-9

Thus in our modern times, from every corner of the globe, the scattered peoples of Shinar have reappeared in descendant races, peoples, and nations. Linked together by advanced technology, in travel, communications, trade and commerce, once again the human race lives on one plain of coexistence. In the 21st century we call this 'globalism.'

Many today are asking the question: 'What is the human race building into the heavens today to make a name in the world?'

Look into the biblical book of Revelation to find an interesting insight to this question!

The 13th chapter pictures two symbolic beasts arriving on the world scene and through their coalition of religious and superpower structures they form a One World Government with a New World Order.

Seeking to dominate the world, the second beast makes an image of worship to the first beast, then tries to enforce all peoples of the world to worship at the shrine of the false image.

He (the second beast) was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, (the first beast) that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666. Revelation 13:15-18

Be assured the religious and political powers, represented by the two beasts, are rehearsing on the world's stage today. Very soon the curtain of events will rise revealing their true identity. And the script they shall act out is the inspiration of Satan.

*At that time Michael (Son of God) shall stand up,
The great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people;
And there shall be a time of trouble,
Such as never was since there was a nation,
Even to that time.
And at that time your people shall be delivered,
Every one who is found written in the book. Daniel 12:1*

Meanwhile we shall return to the plain of Shinar.

As the segregated people disperse for other lands, Nimrod and his company remain at Babel, And from Babel, they build the city of Babylon.

And the beginning of his (Nimrod) kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that is the principal city). Genesis 10:10-12

As new lands are settled, once again through people's choices, good and evil begins to permeate the world.

From Babel the emigrants of Shinar take their pagan beliefs and satanic rituals and from these early beginnings, paganism mutates and proliferates into many false gods. Pagan gods in the form of human deities, the sun, planets, stars, creatures, images of gods made of wood and stone, ...the Baals and the Ashtoreths, the gods of Siria the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines... Judges 10: 6

Believe it or not, in mystical groves children are sacrificed and burnt upon altars as peace offerings to appease the gods and hopefully gain their favour.

...for every abomination to the Lord which He hates they have done to their gods: for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. Deuteronomy 1:2

...flaming yourselves with gods under every green tree,

*Slaying the children in the valleys,
Under the clefts of the rocks... Isaiah 57:5*

Thus in opposition to God's true sacrificial offerings, Satan pollutes the land with human blood offerings and degrades true worship of God.

Alas with the spread of paganism, peoples and nations are rapidly reverting back to the wickedness of the ancient times before the flood. Isaiah 46:10

But God has a strategic plan of His own - one which involves a nation.

A righteous nation to uphold His true ways.

A nation of people to unfold his plan of salvation before the known world.

And most importantly this nation is destined to carry forward the human genealogy from which the Son shall be born in human life.

Yes, like a rainbow of promise arching over the sky, the promise of the coming deliverer arches over Old Testament times.

And under God's rainbow of promise, we shall unveil the comings and goings of peoples and nations.

In the developing drama we meet true heroes inspired by God's miraculous power. Equally we see the cowardly deeds and abominations of the wicked.

Will God's nation live out His expectations amid the testing trials of life?

Will His chosen people fulfill their spiritual destiny?

Will they follow the divine plan the great King has mapped out for their lives?"

With these questions smoldering in our minds, This Man's voice fades into a holy silence as in the log cabin we eagerly await the next part of his true story.

The LORD bless you and keep you,
The LORD make His face
shine upon you,
And be gracious to you;
The LORD lift up
His countenance upon you,
And give you peace.
Numbers 6:24
